ADMINISTRATION

Directors, Administrative Officers, and Teachers, not text-books inspire students to higher ideals. From their own achievements these persons offer to the students the wisdom which they have gained and encourage them to utilize their knowledge to build a new and better future. The friendly attitude displayed and the willing help given make Maryville teachers highly esteemed by their pupils, Their confidence in us makes us confident in ourselves.

RALPH WALDO LLOYD

The admiration and respect of the entire student body are freely given to our president, Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd. Aside from his many activities for the College, which in themselves would constitute a full-time job for most people, Dr. Lloyd is active in educational organizations and in church organizations both national and international.

Inaugurating his twenty-first year as president of Maryville College, Dr. Lloyd made a European trip in the summer, bringing back many fascinating stories to share with both students and faculty.

Not only does our president hold a high place in our esteem for his work, but also in our hearts for his wonderful sense of humor, even-tempered disposition, friendly manner, and exemplary Christian character.

S T U D E N T B O D Y

As difficult as it is for large groups of people to get along well together, the student body at Maryville manages with a surprising degree of success to give the appearance of being one big happy family. The friendly spirit with which all new students are greeted and the wholesome attitude which prevades the campus lingers in the memory of most visitors to the College. As each student is distinguished by his deeds, so is each school recognized by the caliber of its students.

Aside from the regular routine of studies most students find time to participate in several extra-curricular activities. Whether it is musical, dramatic, or artistic talent you have, you are in great demand. Homecoming, Barnwarming, and May Day offer an unlimited possibility for ambitious students and present an opportunity for those who just like to watch to enjoy themselves to the fullest.

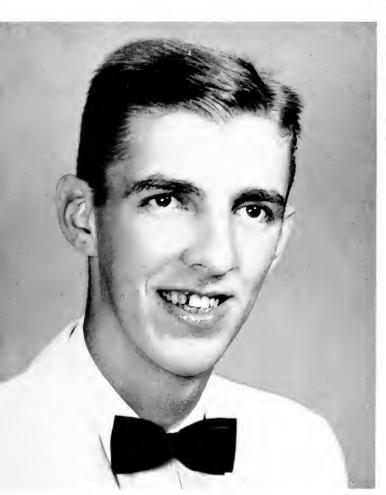

BEVERLY JEAN JACOBI POINT PLEASANT, NEW JERSEY

GIRL OF THE YEAR

While learning the three "R's," our Girl of the Year has excelled in the three "P's"—pep, personality, and poise. Professors find her a conscientious student, YW members find her an earnest and sincere worker, and all Maryville students find her a gay and charming classmate. Whether she is making a poster, rehearsing a dance routine, working at the Negro mission, or aiding "back stage" on a big production, her pleasant smile and willing attitude make her an asset to our campus, CHILHOWEAN presents proudly its Girl of the Year—Beverly Jacobi.

BOY OF THE YEAR

Personality, friendliness, sportsmanship, and sincerity are outstanding characteristics that describe our Boy of the Year. His ready wit, boundless energy, and willingness to do what needs doing make him a valuable member of our student body.

His sense of fair play has gained for him many friends and in turn has made his friendship esteemed by others. Socially, scholastically, and spiritually he is our choice—Wes Miles, CHILHOWEAN Boy of the Year.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

King Bob, Queen Lynn, and the Court

Students and townsfolks, young and old, relived their childhood memories at YW's annual Barnwarming production "Main Street Fantasy." The Alumni Gym became a storybook-land with the addition of gaily decorated booths, and with the performance of a toy shop romance between a Swiss Doll and the Captain of the Wooden Soldiers, aided and abetted by Raggedy Ann and Andy and Popo the Puppet, but complicated by the French Doll.

Queen Lynn and King Bob reigned over the festivities, the proceeds of which went to Tuba Indian Mission in Arizona.

ORGANIZATIONS

No matter where your interest lies, you can probably find an organization on campus designed to fit your needs. There are those which provide spiritual guidance, opportunity for learning more about student government, general interest clubs, and, of course, the four societies just for fun. Taking an active interest in one or more of these organizations contributes to a well-rounded college education.

STUDENT COUNCIL

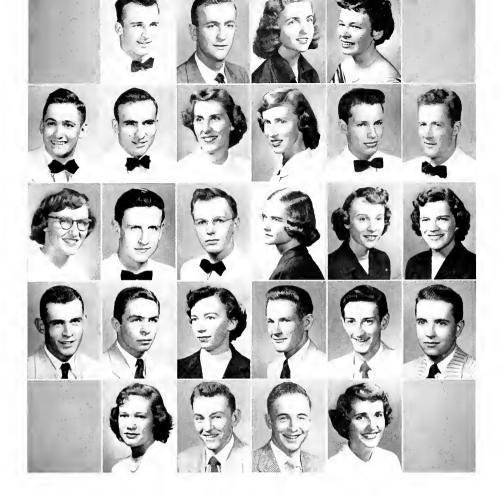

BOB CUTHILL Student Body President

This year the theme of the Student Council has been CO-OPERATION. By living up to this theme, the student leaders on the Council have been able to attain much success. Accepting the responsibility placed upon it by all of the students, the Council has done its utmost to deal effectively with the problems arising out of student life. The establishment of a Student Office has been the most significant advance of the year. An accurate and consistent record of student organizations will be kept in this office.

The six girls who make up the co-ordinating committee of Women's Student Government Association are a representative group from the four classes who co-ordinate government in the women's dormitories with the campus Student Government plan. WSGA was organized in order that the women students on campus might assume a larger degree of responsibility in government on the hill.

Men's Student Organization, which was organized just a few years ago, gives all men of Maryville College a democratic voice in student government on the campus and sponsors projects of benefit to male students. Last year major steps were taken to strengthen the organization and as a result a new constitution was adopted this year. Pictured above is the co-ordinating council, whose membership was increased under the new constitution.

SOCIAL BOARD

INTER-CLUB C O U N C I L Because all work and no play makes a dull coed, the Social Board works from the first "Community Sing" in the fall to the last "after-dinner-dance" in the spring to give Maryville students a varied and entertaining social program.

Faculty and student representatives work with Chairman Marie Richards in supervising Saturday night programs, dancing activities, and Student Center facilities.

Those organizations having no individual representative on Student Council take part in Student Government through representation on an Inter-Club Council. The president of Inter-Club Council, Newell Witherspoon, is a voting member Student Council where he acts on behalf of the clubs affiliated with this group.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Maryville College YWCA greatly enriches the college life through its many activities during the year. Primary among its purposes is to give each girl an opportunity to develop a full and creative life. Through the Big-Little Sister program, the YWCA aids in the "getting acquainted" period.

In seeking to accomplish the goals, various committees were organized. The heads of these committees formed the cabinet which worked with adult sponsors. An attempt was made through personal contact to discover the interests of each girl and place her accordingly on a committee.

Barnwarming, mission work, and community service are some of the projects which not only take advantage of the various abilities of the girls, but also contribute to the service of others. The YM and YW also co-operated in giving the students the facilities of the "Y" Store, the "M" Book, Artist Series, devotions, and the weekly Wednesday night radio program, "Frontiers of Faith."

The Sunday programs try to meet the various needs of the young women by utilizing music, plays, speakers, and worship services.

Using the theme "Commissioned, Consecrated, and Controlled," the two Y's have undoubtedly been of great service to each individual, to the college, and to the community.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Working with the theme "Commissioned, Consecrated, and Controlled," YM is well on its way through another successful year. The organization provides a well rounded program of spiritual, social, and physical activities for men students.

Sunday afternoon worship services, joint meetings with YW, and active participation in mid-week prayer meetings and in the February Meetings aid spiritual growth. A memorable event this year was the annual Bible Baseball game, which saw YW go down in defeat to a proud, but chivalrous YM team. Through community service projects, the men gain invaluable experience while serving others.

The YM's co-sponsorship of the Y Store and of Artist Series adds much to the campus social life. Also on the lighter side were the Y Hike to the Chimneys, a YM "Brawl," a square dance, and participation in receptions for visiting speakers.

The interest displayed by YM has been valuable to the program of Intramural athletics. For the second year, YM will present an Intramural Sportsmanship Award to some deserving athlete.

Finding a place in Y will help young men to find their place in the community and in life.

MARY EDITH McMILLAN Nu Gamma Chairman

A friendly introduction to Maryville College is afforded new women students through the YW-sponsored Nu Gamma Program. Sixteen sophomore girls, chosen as Nu Gamma leaders by the YWCA cabinet, correspond with new girls in the summer, are on hand to greet them upon their arrival on campus, and counsel and entertain them during the first six weeks. This year a high spot in Nu Gamma activity was Sunday night supper at "Morningside" for each Nu Gamma group.

The purpose of the Student Volunteers group on Maryville College campus is two-fold. Sincere, earnest Christians are encouraged to respond to Christ's imperative "Go ye into all the world," by offering their talents and their lives to the world mission of His Church. On the other hand, those who have not felt themselves chosen for a missionary vocation are confronted with the equal necessity of faithful prayers and generous financial support which enables the organization to send packages to foreign and national missions.

Jesus' words, "As the Father hath sent me, SO SEND I YOU," are this year's theme. Through Sunday night programs, informal fellowship groups, special projects, attendance at the SVM Quadrennial Conference, members seek a clearer understanding of God's will for their lives in the plan of His Kingdom on earth.

In an effort to make the town girls feel a closer relationship with the school and with the girls rooming on campus, YWCA sponsors the Pi Gamma organization. Through informal social gatherings with both town girls and dorm girls a closer acquaintance is formed.

THE "M" BOOK

One of the many undertakings to which YMCA and YWCA lend their talents is the publication each year of an "M" Book, which contains rules, regulations, and an explanation of activities on Maryville campus. It is of unquestionable value to both old and new students. On this year's staff were editors Mary Lois McConnell and Bill Robinson, and business managers Ruth Blackburn and Don Brakebill.

F I N E A R T S

Maryville takes great pride in her fine art's division, and rightly so. The College's new Fine Arts Center and the Vesper Choir's tour of the country have publicized Maryville far and wide. Aside from participation in the dramatic, musical, and artistic organizations, students have the opportunity of hearing and seeing persons famous in various fields through the Artist Series and the February Meetings.

V E S P E R C H O I R

Throughout the year the Maryville College Vesper Choir does much to add to the joys of college life. Under the direction of Mr. Harry Harter, the sixty voices are chosen in the fall, molded, and trained in such a way as to provide inspiration as well as entertainment. The weekly Vesper service, occasional chapel performances, and numerous concert appearances provide opportunities for the choir to share with others the messages of choral music. Several extended tours have been taken, the most notable and recent one in the 1951 Season being a northern trip including such cities as Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Cincinnati.

The Vesper Choir is a well-known and loved part of the college and has made a real name among many musical circles.

Much pleasure is gained, not only for the listeners, but also for the singers who find a real feeling of unity and fellowship through the many activities in which they participate.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

Whether it's on the football field at half time or in the Santa Claus parade, Maryville's marching band with its rapid cadence and high-stepping majorettes makes a good appearance. The college orchestra, also under the direction of Mr. Curtis Hughes, with Miss Catherine Crews as Concert Mistress, provides music on the more classical side. The regular program for the year consisted of accompanying the Messiah in December and of presenting fall and spring concerts. Augmenting this year's agenda was the presentation of an original musical score "Highlanday" written by Bill Deihl.

ALL GIRL CHOIR

The All Girl Choir makes its appearance on campus once each month at the Sunday Vesper Services, and takes part in the special Christmas Vesper program. The social event sponsored by the Choir is the annual "Sadie Hawkins Day" program and square dance which provide fun and laughter for the entire campus.

In place of the annual "Springtime Serenade." the Glee Club and the All Girl Choir combined forces this year to produce the merry and delightful Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance." In a more serious vein, they participated in a program of sacred music at a joint meeting of YM and YW.

MEN'S GLEE ELUB

TAU KAPPA CHI

Tau Kappa Chi is composed of women music students who are desirous of promoting interest in music and whose goal is a higher achievement in that field. Members are June Hood, Doris Holt, Joyce Lingenfelter, Lena McGaha, Carolyn Marshall, and Barbara Sandos.

A sincere interest in music appreciation is the qualification for membership in the Disc Club. Members Annabelle Libby, Dorothy Vawter, Nina Ruth Gillette, George Caldwell, Don Brakebill, Larry Wallace, and Herbert Hoover this year have specialized in presenting various forms such as the sonata, concerto, and aria.

THE MESSIAH

Messiah Soloists

The largest group in the history of Mary-ville College gave a stirring performance this year at the nineteenth annual presentation of Handel's Messiah. The chorus was composed of Vesper Choir, Girl Choir, and Men's Glee Club members, interested students, faculty, and townspeople.

Musical accompaniment was provided for both the chorus and the thirteen soloists by the College Symphony Orchestra, Miss Katharine Davies at the organ and Miss Garnet Manges at the piano. The entire production was under the direction of Mr. Harry Harter.

Nelson and Neal, duo-pianists, were the first presentation of the 1951-52 Artist Series. The young couple, who gave their concert in October, were an immediate success, winning the hearts of the students by their marvelous talent and by their delightful informality. A unique variation of "Yankee Doodle" was a popular selection even here in the heart of Dixie.

January brought the second guest artist, the well-known baritone William Warfield of "Showboat" fame. A program of classics, foreign-language songs, folk-songs, and spirituals thrilled the audience. satire by Samuel Spewack, amused the campus, and later in the year Shakespearean drama complete with witches and ghosts made its appearance with the performance of "Macbeth."

For the Experimental Theater plays, director Kathleen Craven selected first two slightly unusual treatments of the eternal love theme: Theresa Helburn's "Enter the Hero" and Anton Chekov's "The Marriage Proposal." A Christmas play "Star Song" ended the first semester for the thespians. Starting the new year off right actors, actresses, stage hands, propmen, and costumers combined efforts to present Edna St. Vincent Millay's "The King and the Slatterns" and the play "Overtones."

ART ACTIVITIES

The art gallery in the Fine Arts Center has been the scene of several exhibitions this year. The first semester brought an exhibition of nineteenth century French prints followed by an exhibit of the work of Maryville College students. Later showings were the works of the John Herron

Art School, a display of plans and drawings made by architects Schweiker and Elting, and a display of American Folk Art.

Many new additions were made to the Art Department this year, including twelve new easels and a kiln which is now in operation. The main project for the year was the tool board for sculpturing.

This year the seventy-sixth in the Mary-ville College series of February Meetings was led by Dr. George E. Sweazy, the Director of the New Life Movement and Secretary of the Division of Evangelism for the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. Our song leader for the series was Mr. John Magill, of Abington, Pennsylvania, a graduate of Maryville College.

In his first message Dr. Sweazy told us, "It's the set of the soul that decides the goal, and not the storm or the strife."

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

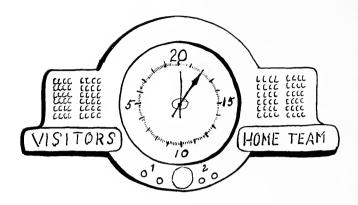

Upon this line from a well-known poem Dr. Sweazy built a series of enlightening sermons, designed to answer such important questions as "Who am I?" and "Who is Jesus Christ?" Fun and fellowship at the YM-YW party, the opportunity of getting acquainted presented at the receptions, and serious discussions at campus bull sessions and at informal interviews helped everyone to feel the true spirit and meaning behind the February Meetings, and to realize the vital part they play in the life at Maryville College.

ATHLETICS

Maryville College takes pride in her athletic department which emphasizes the building of strong bodies and the development of high character, rather than the mass production of winning teams. An invitation to participation is extended to all—men or women, varsity potentials or average players—through various media, and the honor of the amateur athlete is jealously guarded.

team with greater depth, manpower, and experience.

The Centre Colonels loomed third on the horizon, and despite the fact that the highlanders consistently outplayed a 200pound line, the Praying Colonels took to the air and racked up two "quickies," finishing with a 13-7 score.

October 13 and East Tennessee State were remembered with regret as the Scots, with an injury-hampered line-up, sought to avenge last year's game. But fortune wasn't with MC as the ETS Bucs passed for two TD's in the first half and ran over two more in the second to sew up the game 27-0.

The Scotties then played Emory & Henry and went under 38-12, though Allen, Campbell, and Sharp clicked for two nice ones.

Rain played the villian when Carson-Newman came to town on Homecoming date. Punting was the deciding factor, with the Eagles getting the edge and eeking out a slip-slide 12-0 victory.

It was a cold, damp day for the Georgetown bout, which featured good passing and a little rough stuff both ways. As usual, however, breaks were the whole game and a fighting, courageous Scottie eleven went down 21-0.

In a brisk finale with Carson-Newman, the Highlanders were out-run, out-passed, but not out-scrapped as things got rough and six men went out via the thumb route.

Final score—27-6.

A football story is not all told in the scores, and the will to win will surely bring success in the future.

A fast opener saw the Scottie matmen down Knoxville Y in a close 16-13 match. Three losses followed—Chattanooga 21-11, ever-strong Vanderbilt 21-10, and Middle Tennessee State 17-12. Maryville then proceeded to avenge a previous loss to the Chattanooga Mocs by coming out on the long end of a 20-13 score on the home mats.

MTS and Vandy return matches at home and Emory, Auburn, and Knoxville Y bouts on the road were yet to meet as this book went to press. The MC wrestlers will finish the season in the SEAAU Tourney in which they placed second last year.

With a hard schedule and few breaks, MC's cage-men got off to a flying start with a 58-42 win over Carbon-Carbide of Oak Ridge. The Scots then dropped two "heartbreakers"—one to Hiwassee 83-82, and another to Tusculum 82-78. Back in stride again the hoopsters racked up three straight victories—Lincoln Memorial University 92-80, Carbon-Carbide 87-47, and

Milligan 67-62. Tennessee Wesleyan then proceeded to hand MC its worst defeat of the season to date by an 82-47 score. Hiwassee came to the fore next and went under 70-67, to soften the following three losses to Emory & Henry 69-68, King 48-47, and Carson-Newman 56-49. The Scots topped North Georgia in a thrilling 88-82 contest, with seven games yet to play as this book went to press. MC's baseball team, under the leadership of Coach Lombe (Gray Fox) Honaker, enjoyed a victorious season last spring ending up with a 10-2 record. Starting with the wrong foot, the Scots lost the season's opener against Hiwassee 4-0, but had sweet revenge in a second game which saw a Maryville favored 21-0 score. Gaining momentum with warmer weather, the Lombe-men then dropped Emory & Henry at home 3-2, with King and Milligan going under 7-8 and 8-0 on the road. Lincoln Memorial University handed the Scots their second and last defeat 9-4. Successive wins followed—over East Tennessee State 2-1, King 6-2, and Carson-Newman 11-5. Milligan and Carson-Newman then came to town to take the short end of identical 6-4 scores. When LMU furnished the opposition for the last game, the Highlanders rambled to an 8-6 score, averaging an earlier defeat and making the season complete.
